It is hereby stipulated between the parties, Cameron Desmond, Assistant United States Attorney, Toni White, attorney for defendant MICHAEL WILLIAMS and Michael D. Long, attorney for defendant CLARENCE COURTNEY, that the status conference set for December 15, 2022, at 9:30 a.m. should be continued and re-set for February 9, 2023, at 9:30 a.m.

The parties further agree that this court should make a finding of good cause for the requested extension and that in fact good cause is hereby shown. The government has provided over 400 pages of discovery and a number of recordings. All attorneys continue to read and view the discovery, investigate the case and meet with their respective clients. Counsel for defendants believe that failure to grant the above-requested continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.

All parties are available to appear in this case on February 9, 2023.

1        Each party further stipulates that the ends of justice served by granting such continuance
2        outweigh the best interests of the public and of all the defendants in a speedy trial. Time has already
3        been excluded through December 15, 2022.
4

5        All parties request the date of February 9, 2023, for the status hearing. The request for
6        extending the date for the status conference is at the specific request of each of the defendants and
7        with the knowing, intelligent and voluntary waiver of each defendant's speedy trial rights under the 8        law. The government agrees that a continuance is necessary. Good cause is hereby shown.
9

10       For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq.,
11       within which trial must commence, the time period from today's date to February 9, 2023,
12       inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) [Local Code T4]
13       because it results from a continuance granted by the Court at defendants' request on the basis of 14       the Court's finding that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest
15       of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.
